

30812 - Ruling on artificial silk

the question

What is the ruling on wearing a garment made of artificial silk?

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

It was narrated in the ahaadeeth that silk is haraam for men. For example Abu Dawood (3535) narrated that 'Ali ibn Abi Taalib (may Allah be pleased with him) said: "The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) took a piece of silk in his right hand and a piece of gold in his left and said, 'These two are forbidden for the males of my ummah.'" Classed as saheeh by al-Albani in Saheeh Abi Dawood, 3422.

What is meant by the silk that is forbidden to men is natural silk that is taken from the silkworm. As for artificial silk, that is not included in the prohibition, because there is no statement that it is haraam in either the Quran or Sunnah. If it is not narrated in the Quran and Sunnah that a thing is forbidden, then it is permissible, because the basic principle concerning things is that they are permitted.

But some of these fabrics made from artificial silk may be very soft and like the fabric worn by women. These should be avoided by men, because what is required of men is to be tough and hard; softness is not appropriate for men.

And Allah knows best. May Allah send blessings upon our Prophet Muhammad.
