

46917 - The reason why the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) led the other Prophets in prayer during the Isra' (Night Journey)

the question

What is the reason why the Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) led the other prophets in prayer on the night of the Isra'? What does this indicate?.

Detailed answer

Praise be to Allah.

The reason why the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) was made to go forward to lead the other Prophets in prayer in al-Masjid al-Aqsa, which is the home of the Prophets from Ibraaheem al-Khaleel (peace be upon him) is that our Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) is the greatest leader, as was stated by al-Haafiz ibn Katheer (may Allaah have mercy on him) at the beginning of his commentary on Soorat al-Isra'. He also said, when discussing how the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) led the other Prophets in prayer: "Then his honourable status and superiority to them was manifested when he was made to go forward to lead them in prayer, when Jibreel (peace be upon him) indicated to him that he should do so."

Undoubtedly our Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) is the foremost among the Prophets. He (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: "I will be the leader of the sons of Adam on the Day of Resurrection and the first for whom the grave will be opened and the first to intercede and the first whose intercession will be accepted."

Islam Question & Answer

General Supervisor:

Shaykh Muhammad Saalih al-Munajjid

One of the scholars suggested another reason why he (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) was made to go forward to lead the Prophets in prayer. He said: The Prophet's words, "I led them (in prayer)" indicate – and Allaah knows best – that this ummah took over the position of leading mankind.

And Allaah knows best.
